market review

Finger Limes

Supply is very inconsistent. They cannot be picked whilst it is raining, or when they are still wet from the rain. Lately, it has been pouring in the growing regions.

Asparagus

Still expensive, but supply is good. White Asparagus is available, but is from Peru – quality and supply at this stage is good.

Pine Mushrooms

Have not been available for the past week or so, but with the recent rain we expect that some should arrive shortly.

Blood Plums

Beautiful!! Order up!

Lemons

Very, very expensive this year. The traditional supply at this time of year from the US is very short; and Queensland fruit is low in supply and can't be picked due to rain. Southern fruit is cutting dry. The situation will not improve for another month.

Ox Heart Tomatoes

Available but are breaking down too quickly – more trouble than they are worth. Roma and Cherry Truss are the pick for good tasting tomatoes – especially by the tray loose.

Rockmelons & Red Seedless Grapes

Excellent. Price, quality and supply are all spot on.

Apples

New Season Royal Galas are the way to go, and are what we will be sending out for the moment.

SUMMER 11/12 Monday 6 February 2012

Horseradish & Walnuts

Still out of season.

Jerusalem Artichokes

Still around and available – no problems.

Borlotti Beans, Snake Beans & Prickly Pears

In season now.

Baby Sorrell

Out of production for a couple of weeks due to crop failure.

Target & Gold Beetroot

In between crops and NOT available.

Zucchini Flowers

If the warm weather keeps up the quality will soon be excellent – they love warm, dry weather. If more rain arrives though, the flowers will be more closed and shorter.

Figs

Excellent in quality, price and supply.

Black Tomatoes

Virtually impossible to get. Small, Baby Kumatoes and Mixed Heirloom Cherry Tomatoes are available.

New Season William Pears

Are in and are excellent.
